SOWING OUT OF “STUCK”

September 2017

“Stuck” needs no formal definition, but describes a myriad of life situations and seasons, which stop any momentum we were experiencing, and can shut it down indefinitely! “Stuck” goes far beyond “Recycling” that I dealt with in last month’s newsletter teaching on “Breaking Recycling.” “Stuck” is particularly frustrating because it usually sneaks up on us, slowly stagnating something until little if anything productive is happening. We ultimately find ourselves, or our ministry “stuck” between the proverbial “Rock and a Hard Place.” The hard places of “stuck” are often between vision and provision, people and progress, fulfillment or frustration, and even the life or death of a dream!

Staying “stuck” is like trying to stay afloat and lead in quicksand! It’s not an option! We have been “stuck” in personal and ministry situations, and finally discovered our only option was to “Sow Out Of Stuck!” At times, we sowed more prayer, fasting, praise, Word, faith, encouragement, patience, and direct leadership intervention. God is always faithful so we’ve seen Him get us out of “stuck” many times, and get our personal lives and ministry moving forward again! But at times of great need, we have learned to “Sow Out Of Stuck” in a very powerful way.

We first learned this “big time” when we were making a major ministry move from an international ministry to pastor a church in another city. The church had great potential but was “stuck” at a very low point! We were also “stuck” and couldn’t sell our house, so we had to rent it to keep from losing it. Four years later we still had not been able to sell our house. We were definitely “stuck!” We had sowed in all of the ways I mentioned above, and for some reason we were still “stuck!” As we sought the Lord we sensed strongly the words, “Empty your savings account and sow it!” It was not a huge account, but it was huge for us! It was far greater than any seed we had ever sown, and it was what we were depending upon to keep our house afloat. It was as if the Spirit said: “What are you depending upon, that you need to sow to get out of stuck?” With some faith and some shaking we sowed it! A house that we could not sell in four years, sold in just days for more than we were asking, and 60% more than we had paid for it just eight years earlier! The church also had great breakthroughs, growth, and five building programs!

“Sowing Out Of Stuck” is a powerful breakthrough step that Pastors Ron and Hope, and ourselves, have seen God use over and over again! If you are “stuck,” seek God about “Sowing Out Of Stuck!”

Redemption School Of Ministry

As many of you are aware, Redemption School of Ministry is currently in the planning stages! Our faculty, led by Bishop Paul Gaehring, are working on the curriculum for the school, which will be 100% online and based on Pastor Ron's kingdom-based teachings. There will be a two-year program and elective classes available. Other programs will be added as RSOM moves forward into the future. If you are interested in adding your contact information to our database, please email us at rmfi@myRedemption.cc.

COMING IN 2018!
